Anti-Art School with Heart Smart Arts

Thu 16 February

Chestnut Hall 11am - 1pm

Come, play and create in this anti-art school workshop.

The anti-art school workshop is a safe, non-judgemental space where you can try out lots of different art materials, explore which ways you most like to create, share and learn with and from others about ways to create art and enjoy the art making process. There is no right or way to do things here, just lots of fun to be had and support and guidance from Harriet.

Spaces Available: Open to family groups up to a maximum of 15 people.

Multi-Sports

Fri 17 February

Willow Hall | 10am - 12pm

Try out a range of different sports and let off some steam! - From soft archery to ping pong, this action packed session will keep your little ones entertained from start to finish.

Spaces Available: 10 children aged between 5-10 years old

Mini Soccer Football

Fri 17 February

Multi-Use Games Area 1pm - 3pm

This session is all about football! So pull up your socks, tighten your laces and come on down to the Multi-Use Games Area for a kick-about.

Spaces Available: 12 children aged between 6-10 years old

Please note...

All children will need to be accompanied by an adult for all activities. All of the activities are free and donations are always gratefully received.
